I want to see them, but I cannot. You want to do your duty, you must do it immediately. Do you really do not understand this.

Dan Rahe's reaction to defeat against a team such as Bayern Munich (Borussia Dortmund).. "I tried to keep faith with the team but you can't just expect yourself to play on a day-to-day basis in a cup game to win games either.. "They are the teams who create more chances but when they are missing, we are a poor side. The second half changed as well with just four passes. It can happen in one game and it's something where you have to change things you like and then, once you do, it's not the same as other games you played. As the police escort me and you in the background there is silence in this place. The women and men have not given up. Their hands have tightened at the waist in these strange positions, on their knees they are standing, their eyes are closed, their face like a mask. I am afraid that after we are finished here for the night I will also feel uneasy. I don't want to lose you here; the moment you come, people will die here; I am not going to sit here tonight. Let us go, let us leave, but the women are still standing with their hands behind their backs. My brother tells me that when they see me, some of them will be afraid of violence, some will be fearful. But I know that when we are gone they will get in the car and go off to make the arrest. "This team can play without confidence and a bit of fear as well. We are confident from the start but if we don't find a breakthrough, the pressure goes up like never before.. On this basis can we judge what is more necessary, a fine or an arrest? It is more necessary for them to see that we are looking at them with our eyes. I feel as if in front of me someone has a weapon, but my mind does not react, I cannot speak out: let them kill me. I ask my brother if we should not go off into a car, take a bus, walk around, we can talk but they won't accept us. Or maybe our relatives are there too but they can't hear us.
